THE HALL OF VERY GOOD

The 57 players listed below have several things in send in the names of five former players that yo common. believe should be in the Hall of Fame but isn't. We restricted the voting to only those players whose For example, none of them are in the Pro Football Hall careers were played primarily before 1977. of Fame. Well, like they used to tell Perry Como, "We got And with each passing year, they seem less likely to letters." ever be enshrined in the Hall. And 57 names. On the other hand, certain readers of this magazine believe that each of them deserves to be in Canton. What we didn't get - didn't come close to getting - was We know that because a while back, we asked you to any kind of consensus.

So we're going to try again. But with different rules.

This time we'd like ten names, but they must be taken from the above 57. If you suddenly realize that we left your absolute favorite-ever player off the list, too bad. You'll have to wait until next time. Any names not on the list above will be stricken.

There is no significance to which spot you put the player's name in. Whether he's first, last or in between, he'll get one point for being on your list.

If you didn't send five names before, don't worry. Now is your chance to join in. If you sent five names before, be sure to list them again. We're not going to search for your previous ballot if you write "and the five I said before."

Remember, you must be a member of PFRA to vote, and you must sign your ballot.

REMINDER:

You may now order additional years of line scores.

All NFL years 1920-thru-1959 are available plus the 1926 AFL and the 1946-49 AAFC. Each lists the date, place, score by quarters, individual scoring, and in most cases the announced attendance.

Game summaries are included in the following: NFL 1920-34, 1939, 1950-59, 1926 AFL, and 1946 AAFC. Other summaries will be added if members care to write them.

If you can accept these by computer attachment, the cost is $2 each. If we print out the year and mail it, the cost will be $3 to cover the extra cost. Please limit orders to five at a time.
